#1. Applying the Gijutsu-Shoten 5th event

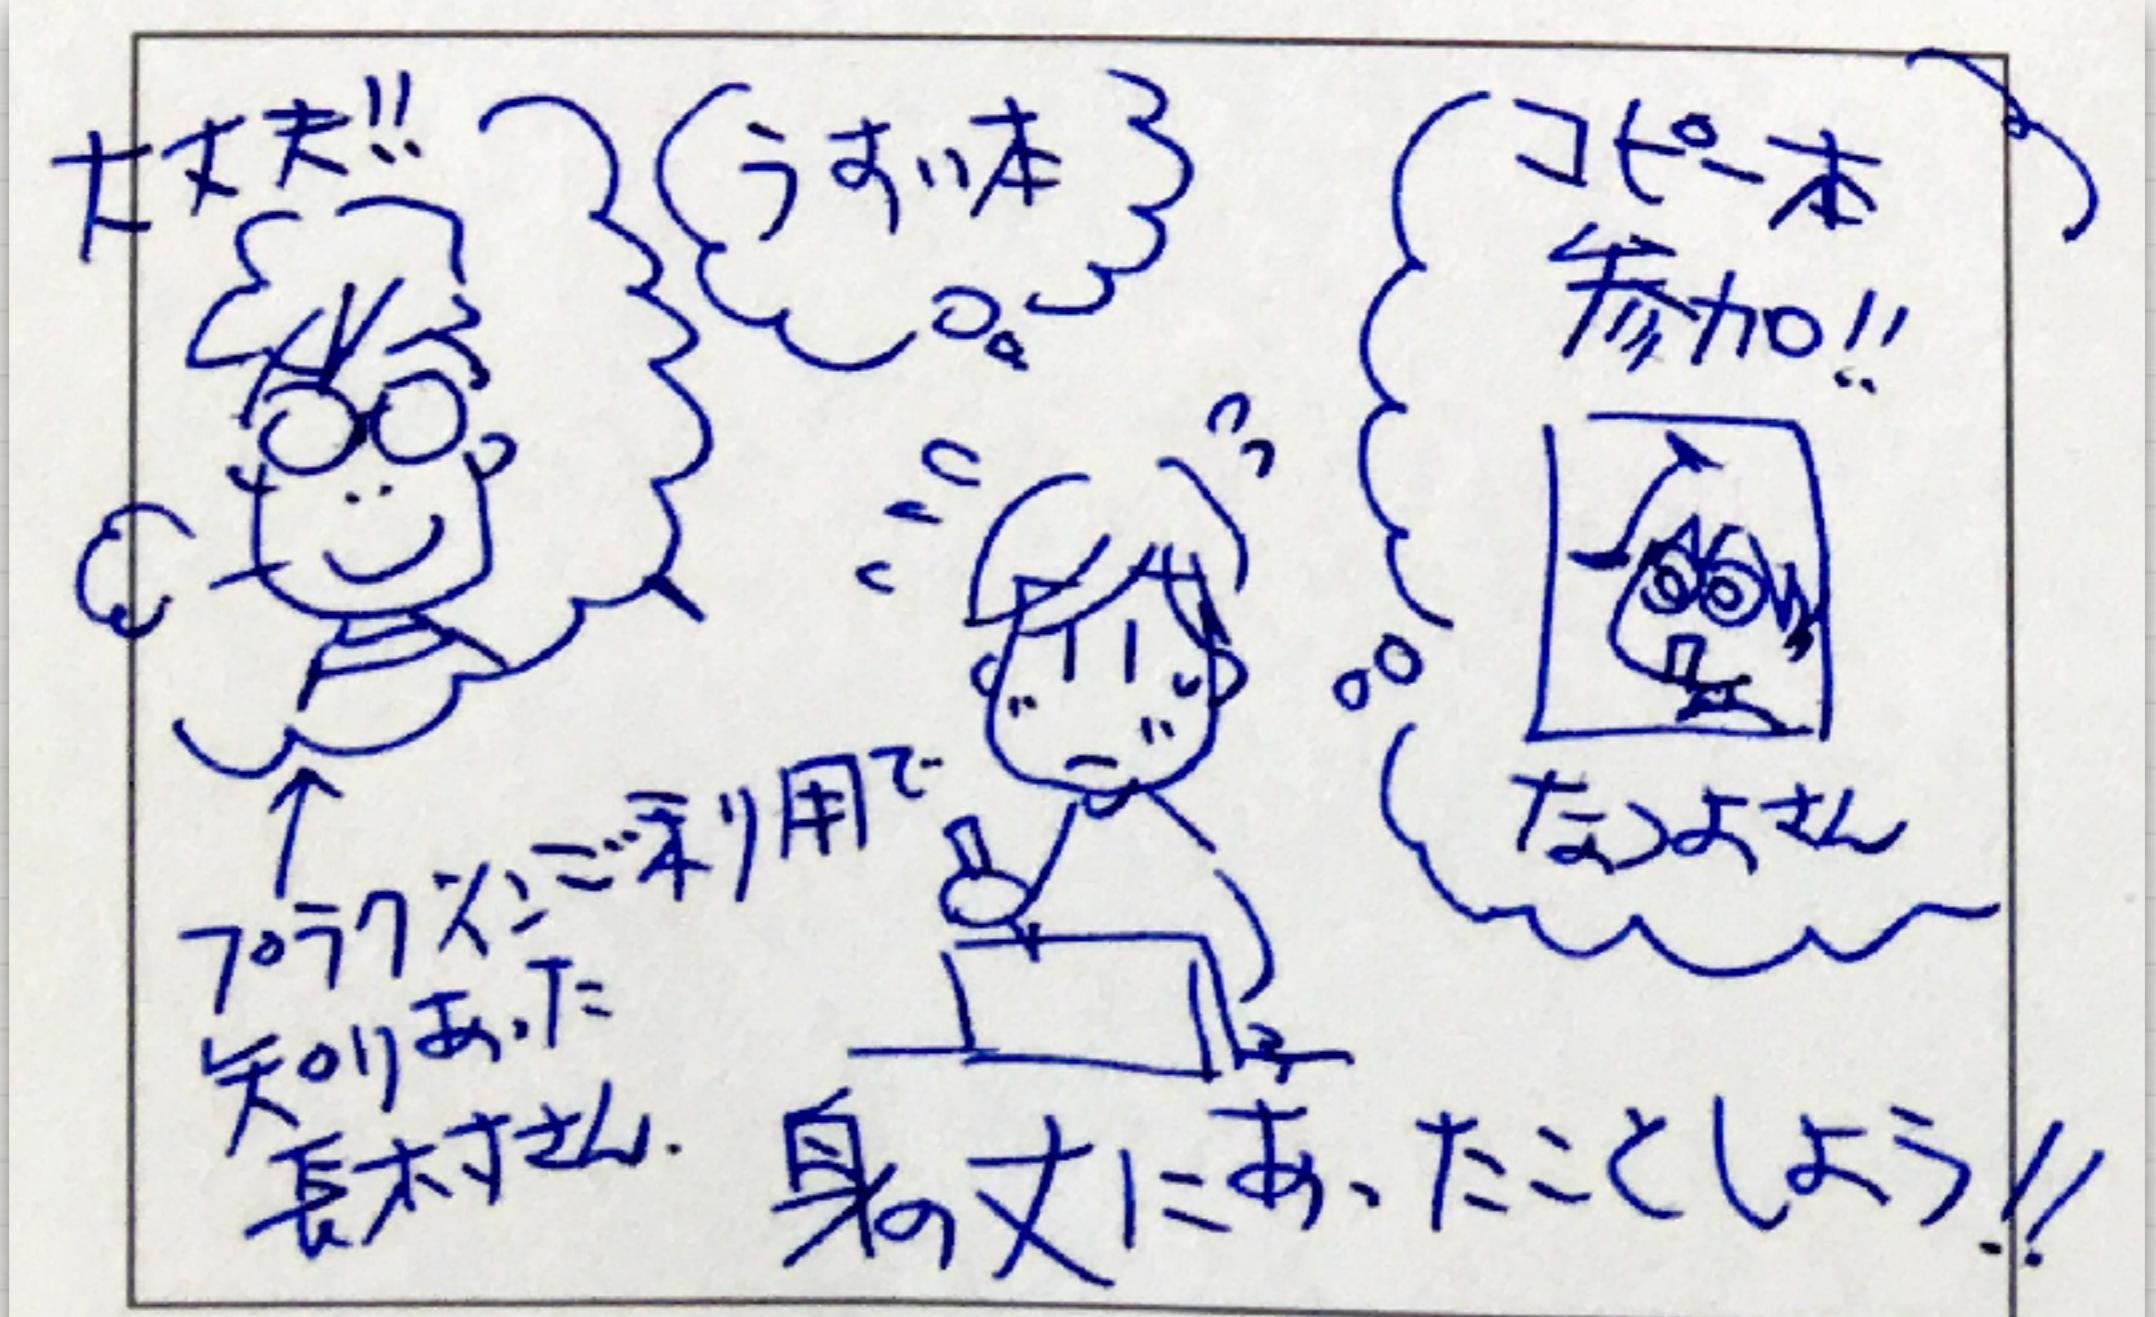

Oh god! I got a chance to join this event!
It's first time for me not only to make fan book by myself,
but also join this kind of event!

しかし技術で書たよ。|||
書けるものが無い……。

Later, I was pretty nervous. Because I must do all the thing by myself.
Commonly say, "One-Ope (One operation)" as this situation.
And I had to write about the something related to technology... I had no plan at that time..

Supported by the people who met at the Infrastructure Study On-line community, I got motivated somehow.
Let's do the least! Do my best!

#2. Start to writing!!

As it is a common story, I could not start it right away....
But I declared "Join the event!", so there was no escape place for me.
Anyway, I decided to make my first fanbook with a copy machine.

From this Sept, I spent a little busy days to do well my new work.

I started to write in the middle of Sept.

After finishing my first illustration, I was getting excited.

The tool to make a book I used was Power Point.
Because this is easy tool for me to use, like this presentation ;-)
Anyway, the remaining time was a little bit more!

#3. Overcome the mountain!

Just few days before the due date, I could hardly manage housekeeping or children's care and so on... Even my book was around 20 pages, it was hard work for me..

On Saturday morning, I rushed into the DTP shop, Kinko's.
I was deeply impressed by seeing the printed papers.
“Ok, almost there! I can do it!”

Binding books was done manually with children.
It might be very strange for me because I love automation tool or CI tool, such as Jenkins ;-)

#4. Time has come, enjoy the event!

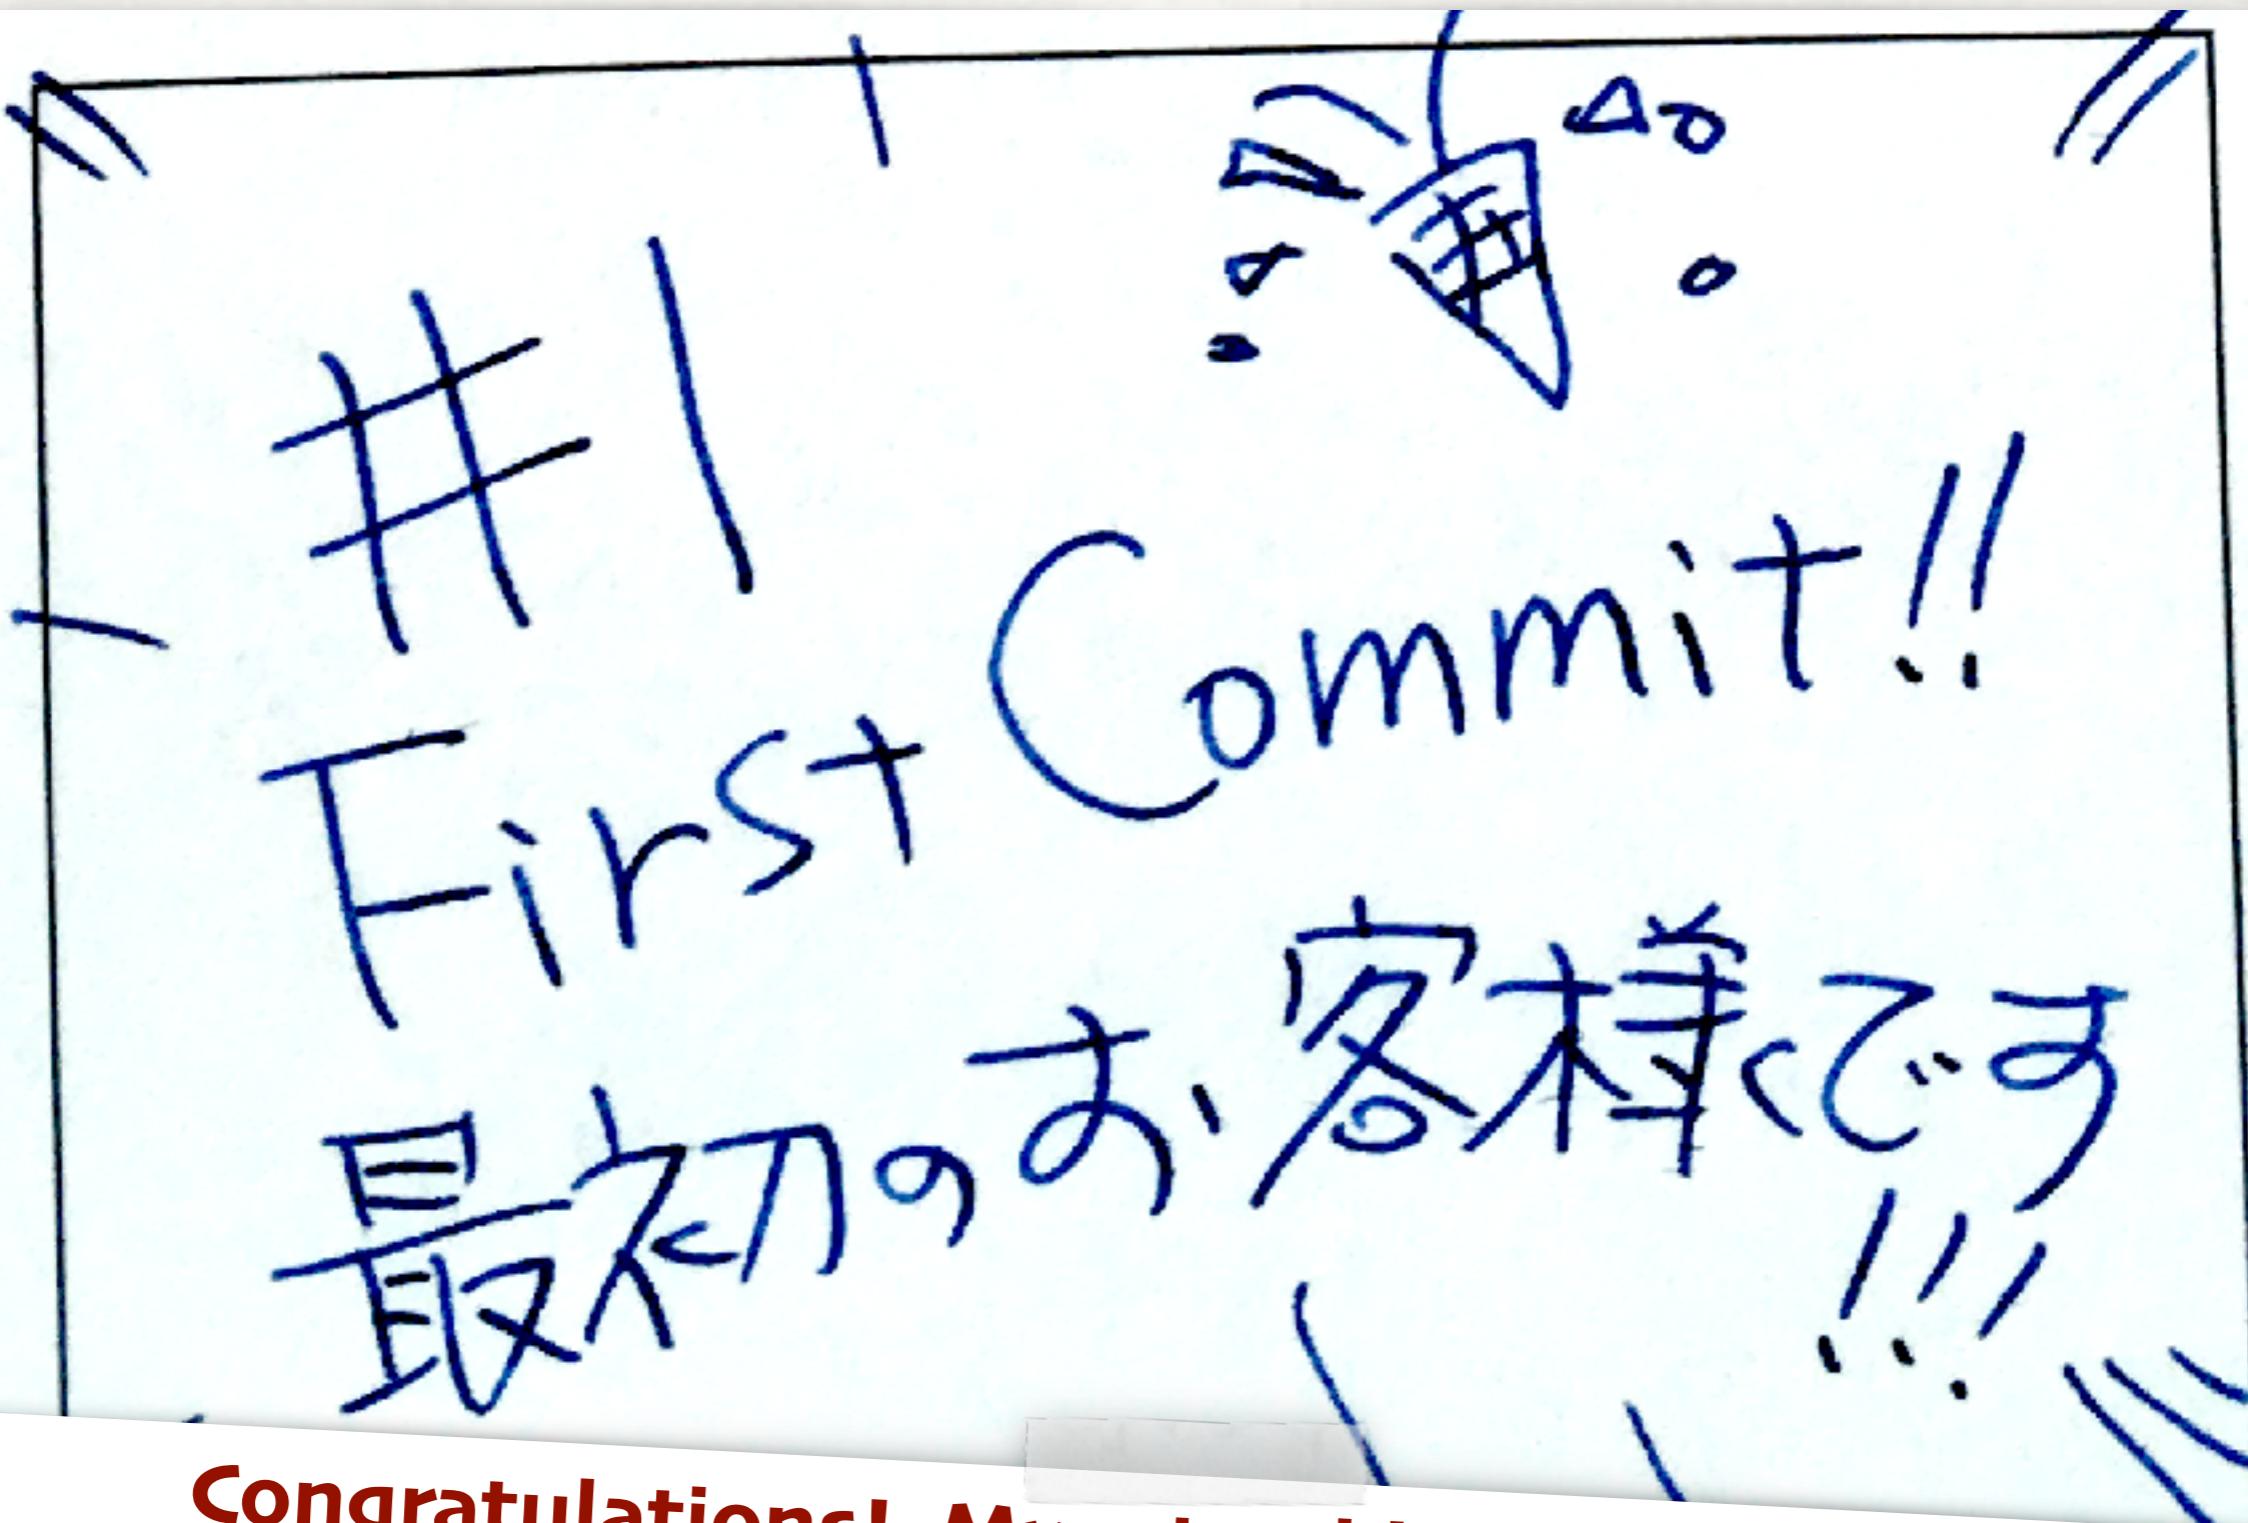

Event place was opened! I sit the my space with my son.
Many people rushed to the booth to get the book.
It was just like a hunting.

そんな中。10分後くらいに…

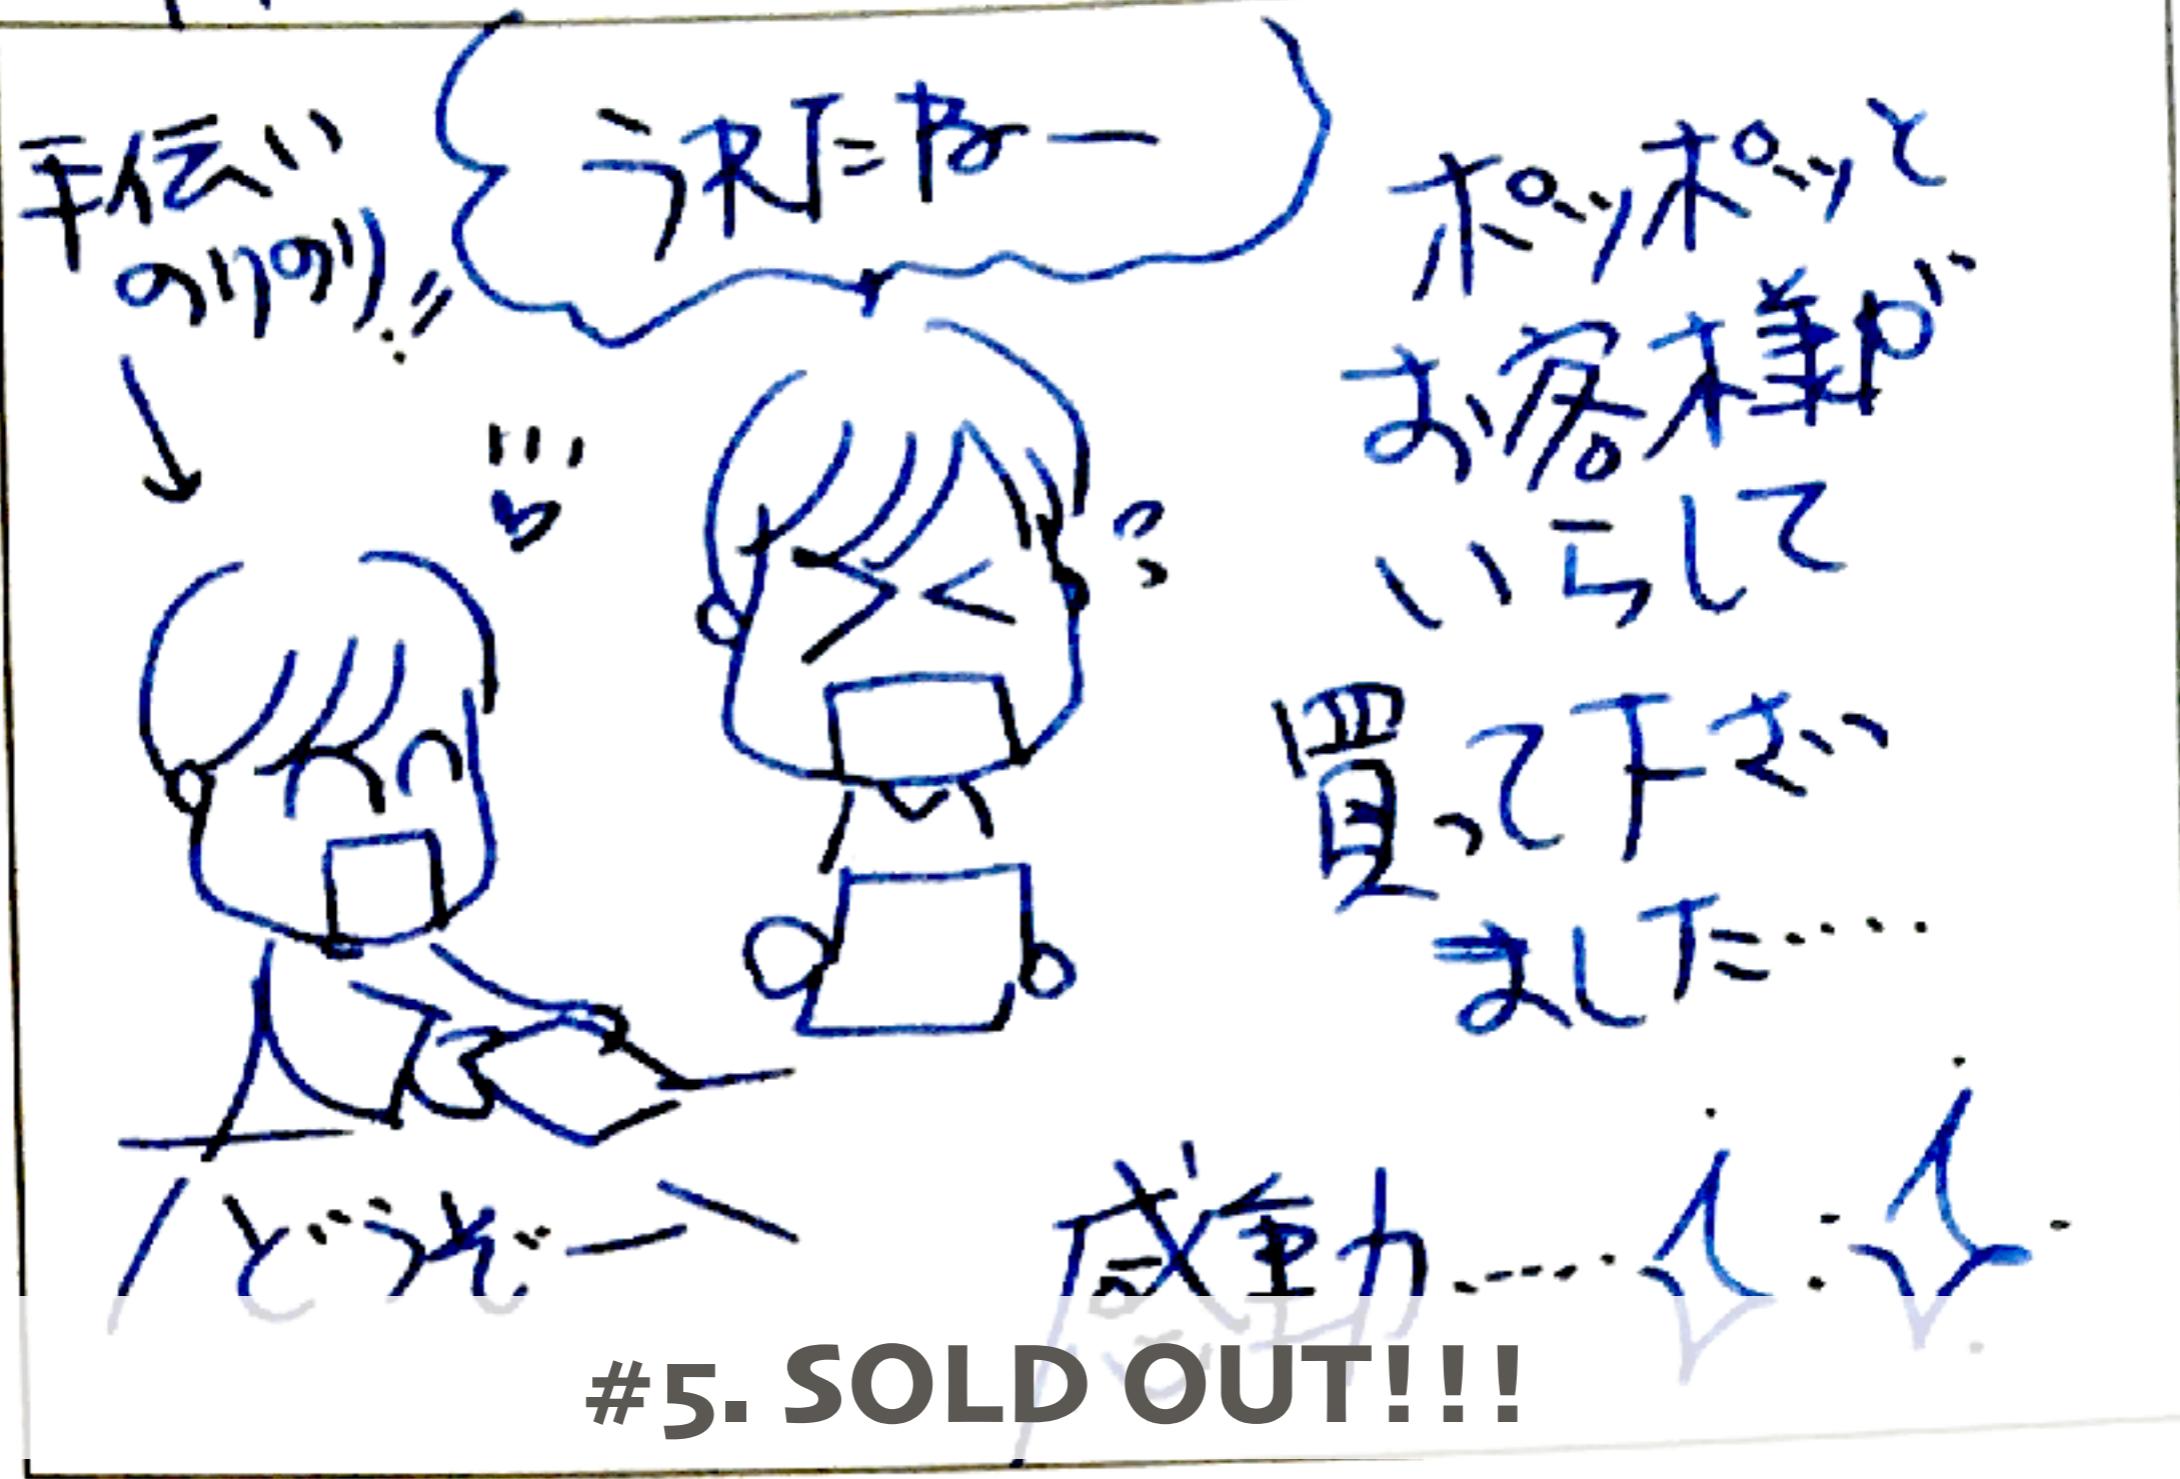

After 10 minutes, the time had come!!
Incredible!!!!

Congratulations! My 1st publishing was soled!!!

After that, some people came to see me, took my book and bought it :)
Most of people got my book without reviewing.....
It was also one of the strange thing for me ;-)

Finally, all the books that I made by hand were sold out in the middle of the noon.

I was deeply impressed because I could see many followers, who I've never seen in the real world.
Until then, I told most of them through only on-line communications.

#7. Keep development, because it's my fun.

To tell the truth, I have a little fear feeling to receive money, through the way like this.

Because I usually tell, share, output my experiences
as one of the activity for OSS community.

それでもまあ、内容は
「私が経験したこと」
「まくたづけか」言ませることなので
そこに価値を見出していく
いただければ幸いで…

So, it's my great pleasure if I could help you a little by sharing my experiences
throughout this book.

Finally, thank you so much all the community,

They lift my days, make my days so happy!!

今回の技術書典で、決済方法や販売のシステムがとても進化していて、個人のアウトプットがすごくしやすくなったり実感しています！
